

MARION CO. SWCD AFFILIATE MEMBER APPLICATION

Marion County Soil and Water Conservation District

For well over 40+ years the Marion County Soil and Water Conservation District has been faithfully providing the Indianapolis community with technical, financial, and educational assistance for their conservation needs. The District Board and its employees continue to be strongly committed to conservation and the wise use of the natural resources of the county including proper land use and protection of our surface and groundwater. Our support is given through technical and educational assistance, erosion control monitoring, and cost-share programs when available.
